

GENDER INEQUALITY

Equality is that state where every individual gets equal opportunities and rights. Every individual of society yearns for equal status, opportunity, and rights. However, it is a general observation that there exists lots of discrimination between humans.

Gender inequality is a social problem that has been spread across the whole world. Gender inequality relates to biased treatment and judgments based on an individual's gender. Through the years many women have been treated differently than men, at home, and at the workplace. Till this day women have been fighting their way to gain the same equality and power as men. Gender inequality is a very important as every girl should be raised to follow their dreams and to never give up on their dreams. To this day women are treated as if they are not capable to do certain things as men. This discrimination towards women has a huge impact on society today.

Gender equality came a long way there is still more room for improvement, the only way we can eradicate gender inequality is by having men and Women come together to voice their opinions and let their needs be known.
